POCSO ACT AND SCHOOL COMMITTEE:

The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 is a special law enacted by the Government of India to protect children below 18 years from sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and exploitation. The Act ensures child-friendly procedures during reporting, investigation, and trial, and makes it mandatory to report any offence related to child sexual abuse. Failure to report such cases is punishable under the law.

As per POCSO guidelines, the school constitutes a Child Protection Committee / POCSO Committee to create a safe and secure environment for children. The committee is responsible for spreading awareness about child safety, preventing abuse, addressing complaints sensitively, and ensuring timely reporting to authorities when required. The committee also works towards building trust, educating students and staff, and safeguarding the rights and well-being of every child in the school.
